

MIGRATION GOVERNANCE FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN INDONESIA

Period: January 2021 – December 2023 (24 months)

In December 2018, Indonesia adopted the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration (GCM), committing to making migration work for all. As a country of origin, transit and destination for migrants, Indonesia is engaged to improve global migration governance to put migrants and their human rights at the center.

The joint programme supports the Government of Indonesia in strengthening its capacity for evidence-based, gender-responsive migration management at national and sub-national levels.

Through this programme, the UN supports the establishment of an inter-ministerial coordination mechanism of a National Action plan for the implementation of its commitments under the the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration.

2.7 million Indonesian nationals employed overseas
Ministry of Foreign Affairs (2020)

355,000 international migrants in Indonesia
United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (2020)

55% of migrant workers are women
Statistics Indonesia/BPS (2020)

KEY RESULTS

(as of March 2023)

Capacity Building on Migration Governance at the National Level

- Provided two batches of trainings to 47 government officials on the Essentials of Migration Management (EMM 2.0) helping to strengthen and enhance the government's awareness of migration governance.
- Supported the government inter-institutional coordination mechanism and processes to reinforce the development of One Data International Migration for Indonesia (SDMI).

Future activity: multi-sectoral study to strengthen the protection of migrants in the fishing sector.

Localizing the Global Compact for Migration

- Involvement of local leaders to strengthen localized migration governance priorities.
- Conducted an assessment of migration policy gaps with Serikat Buruh Migran Indonesia (SBMI) at the sub-national level.
- Organized a roundtable discussion on Prevention of Gender-Based Violence on 30 March 2023 with the inclusion of 61 participants including: 18 Civil Society Organizations, 8 Governmental Agencies, 3 Universities, 5 UN and Development Partners.

Future activities: Training of local stakeholders on migration governance & Strengthening an integrated criminal justice system for violence against women incidents in Central Java and West Nusa Tenggara.

Human Rights-Based and Gender-Responsive Implementation of the Global Compact for Migration (GCM)

- Increased the government and civil society organizations' capacity to apply a human rights-based and gender-responsive implementation of the GCM, at the national & sub-national levels. Trained 74 stakeholders, 70% of which are women.
- Improved the government's awareness on gender-responsive public service for Indonesian migrant workers abroad. The seminar attended by 140 participants (72 women), including consular official from various embassies and consulates.
- Increased the government's knowledge and capacities in providing quality services to women migrant workers victims of VAW and trafficking. Trained 147 consular officials and staff from 59 Indonesian Embassies and Consulates in 37 countries, consisted 67 women and 80 men.

Future Activities:

- Financial literacy, entrepreneurship, and leadership training for women migrant workers.
- Strengthening the Safe Travel App to prevent violence against women migrant workers.
- Strengthening integrated criminal justice system for women migrant workers victims of VAW and trafficking

Involvement of civil society partners

- Facilitated a whole-of-society dialogue, with civil society organizations to identify and map ongoing migration management initiatives and contribute towards the implementation of a National Action Plan for the government-led priorities of the GCM.

Roundtable in 30 November 2022: 50+ participants

50% women participants

15 Civil Society Organizations

3 Universities 5 Ministries and Governmental Agencies

5 UN Agencies and Development Partners

The joint program has created positive narratives and perceptions of migrants and refugees through training and discussions, focusing on their contributions to national development by promoting the human rights of all migrants across all stages of the migration cycle.

IMPLEMENTING PARTNERS

Kementerian Hukum dan HAM